Aquatec Maxcon has undertaken the design and all aspects of construction of a 2.0 ML/d coal seam gas water treatment facility near Moranbah for Arrow Energy. The plant includes chemical dosing pre-treatment, ultrafiltration, reverse osmosis and activated carbon processes resulting in a product water suitable for irrigation and a variety of uses within the mine.