

Aquatec Goup has had a long history of commitment to and involvement in training. This as resulted in recognition of the company as "Employer of the Year" ad apprentices as "Apprentice of the Year" on a number of occassions. Luke Walker has achieved the most recent success being awarded the Queensland Apprentice of the Year, Southwest Region at a gala ceremony on 27th July 2007.

Luke began work with Maxcon Industries as a labourer and his dedication and exemplary work ethic led to an apprenticeship. He has been awarded Apprentice of the Month internally. The QLD Apprentice of the Year, SW Region is a further recognition of his dedication and enthusiasm for learning from the experienced professionals in his workplace. Congratulations Luke!!
